F O R E W O R D

As our school days come to a close, we pause to look back on a year full of memories. These are memories of our friends and happiness we have had.

Seventh graders will remember the past year as one of adjustment to a new phase of school and new faces. Juniors will remember the past year as one of preparation for their future roles as seniors and leaders. But Seniors will remember 1967-68 as a milestone in their lives, for it marked the end of their high school days, and the beginning of their new roles as future leaders.

Yes, our last year has been filled with many experiences which we shall never forget. We have attempted to capture the best and most outstanding of these memories between the covers of the 1968 PINE KNOT.

We hope that we have succeeded in our endeavor to present a good annual to you, the students of Askov High. With the sincere wish that you will remember for a long, long time--we have chosen the theme "Memories" to carry through our book. We present to you--the 1968 PINE KNOT!

Dedication

We, the class of 1968 wish to dedicate our annual to Mr. Arlan H. Wipf. He has helped us a great deal and he has been one of our most liked teachers. We shall always remember him not only as a teacher, but also as a friend to us all.

Annual Staff

When the annual staff first started to meet we met once a week. By the time the annual was completed, we were lucky to have a "day off". We all learned that to put an annual together is a big job with lots of hard work and long hours. We wish next year's annual staff lots of luck!

Library

The library staff's purpose is to assist Mr. Wipf in checking out books and other menial tasks which are necessary for the operation of the library. Another duty for the staff is to run the audio-visual equipment. The members include: LEFT TO RIGHT: Helen Tvedt, Virginia Lund, Sandy Sahlen, Mr. Wipf, Roberta Beavens, Debbie Paige, Pam Paige, Mary Linge, Carol Morrow, Curtis Lundgren.

Newspaper

Third Row: Sandy Ellson, De Ann Cluett, Judy Erikson, Helen Tvedt, Fourth Row: Janet Nedegaard, Sandy Frederiksen, Carol Krogstad, Fifth Row: Pam Paige, Bea Bergholm.
Not pictured, Rick Bresin.

This year the paper staff has been trying to put out a more interesting paper and putting it out more often. With the increased interest, we received some good articles and helpful student editorials.

Senior FHA

During this year we have filled our purpose quite well.

Our first project was making small gifts for the elderly people in the Sandstone Nursing Home. This was quite fun and interesting.

Our main project this year was VERY fullfilling. We collected blood and sent it to Viet Nam. We were very busy for many weeks, but the final much awaited day brought results we were gratified for.

As a whole, our year was one of great experiences and much learning. We will never forget it.

Junior FHA

Boys' And Girls' County

Two boys and two girls were chosen by the local American Legion. For our trip we toured the Pine County Courthouse and also visited the WCMP radio station. We sat in on a very interesting county board meeting. There was a discussion on the dumping of waste chemicals in the county.

Boys' State

Gary Johnsen was chosen by the American Legion Post to go to represent Askov for Boys' State. Boys' State was at St. Olaf College and lasted one week. Gary said it was a very educational experience.

DAR

Janet Nedegaard was chosen as this year's DAR candidate from Askov High School. She was chosen from four basic qualifications: dependability, leadership, citizenship, and patriotism. She competed for county and state scholarships. (DAR --Daughters of American Revolution)

ONE-ACT PLAY

FLORA OF THE FLOWER SHOP

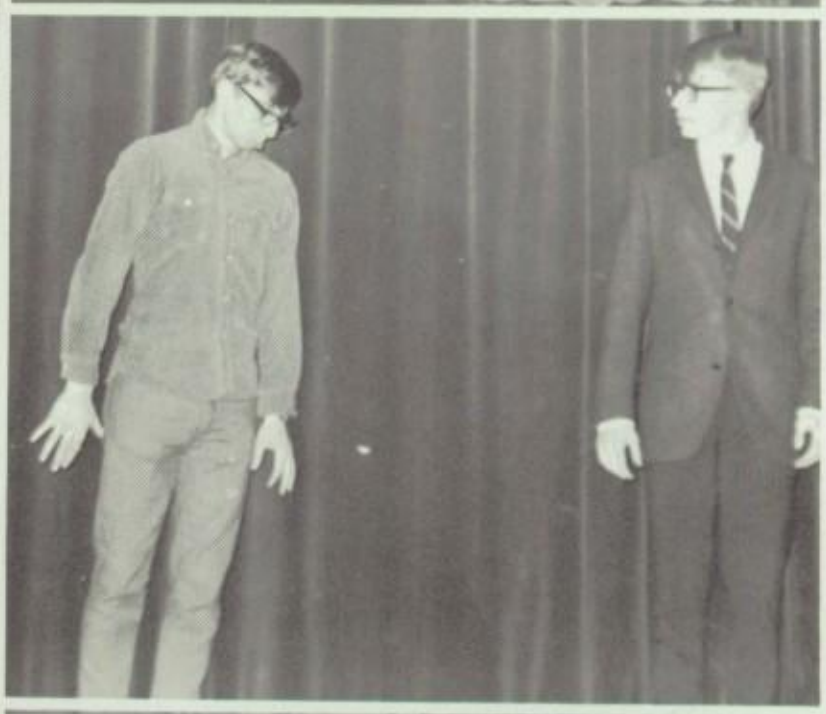
An old-fashioned melodrama

This is an old-fashioned melodrama in which the heroine, Flora Sweetly, is faced with the choice of marrying the villain, Carruthers T. Coldheart, or being thrown out of the flower shop. Just in time, Dudley van Draino saves Flora from the clutches of the villain--or is it Mrs. Brown that saves the day? The narrator and curtain boy keep a lively side conversation going throughout the play.

CAST: Flora Sweetly: Helen Tvedt
Dudley van Draino: Curtis Lundgren
Carruthers T. Coldheart: Art Ellson
Clementine Coldheart: Connie Johnsen
Violet Sweetly: Sandy Ellson
Mrs. Brown: Sandy Frederiksen
Narrator: Gary Johnsen
Curtain Boy: Tom Anderson
Sherriff: Greg Kvasnicka

DIRECTORS: Arla Budd, Arlan Wipf

STUDENT DIRECTORS: Pam Paige, Curtis Lundgren



Junior Play

The junior class presented its annual play Friday, November 10, at 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium. This year's play is a three-act comedy--"Bachelor Bait", written by Wayne C. Lee.

The story is about a college student, Bill Archer, who enters a literary contest for women under the assumed name of "Mrs. Bill Archer" and wins $25,000. His friend Jim decides this prize is too wonderful to pass up.

Bill must marry, confide in his wife, and have her accept the prize, which the magazine editor is coming to present. How Bill goes about finding a wife, and who his wife turns out to be, keeps the audience wondering.

Members of the cast include Paul Pesheck, Neil Beise, Tom Anderson, Rick Bresin, Judy Erikson, Jackie Fogt, Connie Johnsen, Joyce Mickelson, and Jane Jorgensen.

Baseball

Askov had a record of four wins and one second place during the regular season, almost as good as last year's undefeated season. The only team in the district which could beat us was Forest Lake. The district was held at Forest Lake again this year. Forest Lake took top honors and Askov came in second place.

We also competed with thirty other teams in the annual Swain Invitational Meet in Duluth. Among the teams that were there were Duluth East, Silver Bay, Hibbing, and others, all of whom we beat by taking fifth place. Special recognition goes to Rick Storebo for taking fourth place and receiving the golden shoe award.

"Thanks"

The Choir and Band would like to give special thanks to Mrs. Rita Best, Mr. Phil Force, and Mr. John Peterson. They took time out of their already busy schedules to direct regular practices after the loss of our music director. Without their help we would have never had a pep band for our basketball games or been able to give our Christmas Concert.

Seniors in Music

REMEMBER

..The time Brad caught Janet Lunde on top of the slide?
..When Janet N. came to school with her blouse on backwards--as a Junior yet?!!?
..That Carol K. can and always could out-bat all the boys?
..When Terry had to stand higher on the steps to talk to Pam?
..We always had to take our pants off in first grade when we'd been playing in the snow and were were all "wet"?
..In fifth grade when Larry N. and Curtis L. were the only ones who could remember poems?
..When Sandy F. and Carol M. had a knock down, drag-out fight in fourth grade that Sandy still has scars from?
..When we all became teachers for the day?
..When the Kerrick boys used to play "tag" with the little girls?
..When the singing class came around in Kerrick?
..When Pam sang!? (music class)
..The Kerrick Christmas Programs?
..When the boys used to watch the girls swing--from below!!??!!
..The time Janet L. got hit on the head by Curt's swing?
..When the whole class was on detention?
..When Helen had a Red bug bite?
..Janet N. would chauffeur us in the "Blue Bomb"?
..Nap time in second grade?
..Our trip to the zoo in first grade and the elephant almost got Mrs. Lunde?
..Our parties after junior class play practice?
..The all night party after Prom?
..When we LOST money on Homecoming?
..When we had two Linda's, two Kathy's, two Janet's, two Sandy's, two Carol Jean's, and a Barry, Terry, Larry, Mary, Jerry, Gary?
..The "Gruesome Trio" (Janet L., Pam P., Helen T.)?
..We had a "Slave Day"?
..When it snowed for our car wash?
..Our Thanksgiving Play in fourth grade?
..When the boys from up North would sneak out through the window during recess when they were on detention?

CLASS PROPHECY

As I was rummaging through my congested closet trying to eliminate some of its contents, I came across a tattered old volume of the Pine Knot, 1968. Thumbing through the pages, I wondered what had happened to the Senior class.

Then the idea struck me . . . Wouldn't it be fun to look them up and see exactly what they had done with themselves?

Revving up my Piper Cherokee, I took off on operation "Look-up". My first stop was Askov. As I circled the large air strip, I was amazed how the town had progressed. An equal surprise came when I recognized the voice over the radio giving landing directions. It was none other than Bill Lehman, head of the dontrol tower.

Catching the city bus, I headed into Askov. I thought the driver looked somewhat familiar. Why, of course, it was Janet Lunde! I guess she is following in her family's footsteps. She suggested I try the main business section of town.

Sure enough, there I found Francis Bergen and Brian Leach running the Brian Francis School of Carpentry. They informed me that Jerry Van Guilder was now acting Chief of Police for Askov. He had always had a great deal to do with the law in one way or another. I inquired about Jim Ketchum's whereabouts. They told me he was now the manager of the "Playboy Club" in Chicago and added that he was very happy with his work!

Walking along the south side of town, I noticed several plush night clubs. It was here I found Sandy Ellson, owner of the Purple Onion, consulting with her financial advisor, Pat Hogan. Sandy told me that the Dirty Donut, under the management of Janet Nedegaard, was trying to put her out of business. These two had been such good friends in school. I wonder what had happened?

On my way back to the airport I passed Mary's Judo Academy. The owner? Why, Mary Linge! It seems Carol Krogstad and Geneva Nelson are the head instructors. She suggested I stop in at the baseball stadium as I might find a few familiar faces.

She was right. On arriving at the Rutabaga Bowl, I found a capacity crowd deeply engrossed in the final game of the World Series. It was the bottom of the ninth, with the New York Giants up to bat, trailing the Askov Angels by one run. Glancing up to the press box, I saw Wayne Thompson giving the radio audience play-by-play coverage of this dramatic game.

A hush fell over the crowd as the replacement pitcher for the Angels took the mound. Why, it was the one and only, Stan Berglund! A cheer went up from the crowd as the first pitch was thrown, a strike. The second ball, a strike. The third pitch--a strike. The game was over!

After recovering my composure, I returned to my plane and began once more my search of the Senior class.

It was in New York I found Helen Tvedt playing the lead role in the smash hit play, "Supper at Tiffany's". She said that much of the play's success had come from the unbiased and liberal criticisms of the Saturday Evening Post. I later learned that the editor of the Post is Pam Paige.

In Washington, D. C. I looked up Mike Jorgensen. Mike is now Secretary of Agriculture. I knew that Office Practice would pay off! Mike told me that Larry Nielsen was in Southern California running the largest horse ranch in this country. He said Larry had developed a new breed of horse by crossing a kangaroo with a quarter horse. He got a horse with built-in saddle bags. Mike also said Terry Johnsen and Barry Krogh were in Japan trying to teach the art of basketball to a group of geisha girls and also promote foreign relations.

Once more I was off to another section of the country. In Florida I located Lucille Garbow giving surfing lessons and selling orange juice as a sideline.

Moving on to Texas, I saw the name Hatleli and Olson Telephone Company on billboard after billboard. It seems that it was cheaper to buy out the company than to pay the bills. I inquired who the former owner might be, and found out it was Brad Petersen who was now retired living in Montana, raising goats and Cain.

I found David Goward and Greg Kvasnicka briskly working on a formula by which alcohol could be fed intravenously to sick winos.

In California my search finally ended. There I found Kathy Tillman releasing her new album, "Keeping Fit with Kathy", Linda Kozlowski busy sketching scenes for the new movie, "Tempest in my Closet", written by Gary Johnsen and Curtis Lundgren. Carol Morrow was running for governor of California and Sandy Frederiksen. Well . . . Sandy's been sewing a lot of sergeant's stripes lately.

I guess I'd better turn back as I'm almost out of fuel and time. I'll see you next year when operation "Look-up" goes after the class of '69.

TESTAMENT

I, Larry Nielsen leave to Ken and John two horses, so that the lawn might always be trimmed.

I, Janet Lunde, will to Joyce Mickelson my place in the back of the bus in hopes that it might do her some good.

I, Bill Lehman will my desk in speech class to Charlotte Klocke.

I, Brian Leach leave my 47 pictureless copies of Playboy to Derrell Jensen.

WE, Greg Kvasnicka and Francis Bergen, will our thumbs to any Junior who wants to get to Duluth.

I, Barry Krogh, leave my no. 13 jersey to some lucky Junior.

I, Carol Krogstad, will my ability to bat a ball farther than any boy to Linda Riehm so that she may never strike out.

I, Sandy Frederiksen, leave my air mail stamps to Connie Johnsen so she can irritate the teachers by writing in class.

I, Janet Nedegaard, leave my milk route to Ted Nelson? ? ? ! ?

I, Lucille Garbow, leave my good times in office practice to Carol Winsor so that she will keep Mrs. Stockamp on her toes.

I, Sandy Ellson, will my ringlets to Donna Youngberg.

I, Pam Paige, will my big mouth to Bruce Christensen.

WE, David Goward and Jerry Van Guilder, leave.

I, Linda Kozlowski, leave Duquette . . . to anyone.

I, Brad Petersen, will my class ring to Cheri Elgersma because . . .

I, Jim Ketchum will my freckles to anyone who wants them.

I, Pat Hogan, will my alarm clock to Rick Bresin so he doesn't sleep so much.

I, Curtis Lundgren, leave those long hours in the darkroom to Paul Pesheck, and anyone else who may care to share them with him.

I, Mike Jorgensen, will my Friday and Saturday nights to Tom Anderson so he can spend more time working on his love life.

I, Carol Morrow, will my nice quiet Saturday evenings to . . . . . .

I, Dianne Olson, will my two deer that got away to Roberta Beavens so she can find them for me next season.

I, Geneva Nelson, will to the Junior class my books and library hours so they will give them more use than I did.

I, Mary Linge, will to Judy Erikson my books and my study hall.

I, Wayne Thompson, will leave my abilities to be a friend to anyone to Danny Koecher.

I, Alice Hatleli, will my two feet of yarn for my ring to Jackie Fogt so she won't lose her boyfriend's ring as many times as I have.

I, Stan Berglund, leave my place in catching position to any Junior boy who wants to get spiked.

I, Helen Tvedt, will my front row seat in Office Practice to Jackie Ketchum so she can hear Mrs Stockamp on the days when she has a bad cold.

I, Gary Johnsen, leave to the Junior class girls 30 fertilized eggs in hopes that maybe next year the boy situation may be slightly better.

I, Kathy Tillman, will my chum gum to Kathy Nebola so she can have as much luck as I did.

I, Terry Johnsen, leave my key to the boy's shower room to Eva Bloom . . .

WE, The Annual Staff, wish to express our sympathy to the annual staff next year.

WE, The Senior class, leave, so Kathy Petersen can get the books straightened out again.

WE, The Senior class, leave our name and our reputation to the Junior class in hopes that they use it as well as we did.
